No. N-1/2015-16

Dated: 29th September, 2015

To

The Presidents/General Secretaries,
Of all the Units of ITGOA and ITEF.

Dear Comrades,

Sub: The call for Agitation

It was intimated in our earlier communication that the CBDT invited the JCA in a meeting with the Member (P&V), CBDT, on 16/09/2015 to discuss the issues contained in the Charter of Demands. The Minutes of the meeting was circulated by the ADG-II, HRD, CBDT on 24-09-2015 along with a letter requesting the Central JCA to withdraw the ongoing agitation (attached herewith).

We must state that neither any consultation was not made with us nor were our views called for prior to the issuance of the minutes of the said meeting. The minutes, so issued, gives an impression that the JCA representatives were either not present at the meeting or if present, had kept mum. It also gives an impression that the said meeting was virtually a monologue. The fact that our representatives had contradicted every point made out by the official side with facts and figures was not at all reflected in the said Minutes. The Central JCA has submitted a reply of the said letter on 29-09-2015 and also pointed out the arguments made by our representatives in the said meeting. Both of these are self-explanatory and attached for everybody's consumption.

In view of the above, it is to be reiterated that the CBDT does not intended to resolve the issues immediately. In such a scenario, the Central JCA requests all its members once again to observe the programme of agitation jointly ensuring the active participation of all its members. The Half-day Walk-out on 01-10-2015 and the Strike action on 08-10-2015 are to be observed with all sincerity. The Extended secretariat Meetings of both ITGOA & ITEF and the Central JCA Meeting have been called for on 11-10-2015 to review the situation and intensify the agitation. All the Units of JCA are requested to have an extensive campaign programme for the Half-day Walk-out on 01-10-2015 and the Strike action on 08-10-2015.

Thanking you,

Yours comradely,

(Bhaskar Bhattacharya)
